Support Services	Organizing a corporate event in a year and bi-monthly delivery of fresh seasonal fruit basket in company

The selling price of the package is on average 10% lower than the price paid by a company for services purchased individually from different suppliers and this is a competitive advantage BrandJo, as a contractor.

Prices are influenced by:

- complexity of the package
- location of property
- size of property
- number of personnel

We offer an individual approach to each client and prepare a plan that includes a package appropriate to the needs and requirements. To request an appointment for a specific analysis, please contact us.
